Dear Patient,

You are receiving this message because you have been seen by Dr. Craig Coleby within the past four years and have a diagnosis of Postural Tachycardia Syndrome (POTS).

We are pleased to invite you to a special event hosted by Dr. Coleby, dedicated to raising awareness about the challenges of living with POTS and sharing exciting updates about the future of the Autonomic Disorders Clinic.

Event Details:
Date: Tuesday, May 6, 2025
Time: 6:30 PM – 9:00 PM
Location: Larry H. Miller Megaplex at Jordan Commons, Theatre 19
Reserve Free Tickets: Click here to register

Featured Films:

- POTS: An Invisible Illness – A short documentary by Stiry that sheds light on the daily experiences of those living with POTS. It features perspectives from experts at the University of Utah, Johns Hopkins, Mayo Clinic, Children's National Hospital, Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago, Kennedy Krieger Institute, and Granger Medical Clinic.
- Complicated – A compelling full-length documentary directed by Andrew Abrahams, exploring the lives of young patients managing complex, invisible conditions like Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome (EDS), and the challenges they face navigating the healthcare system.

Special Guest Speakers:

- Anne Maitland, MD – Allergy and Immunology Specialist, featured in Complicated
- Craig Coleby, MD – Autonomic Disorders Clinic
- Brittany Jorgensen, FNP – New provider joining Dr. Coleby from Metrodora

This event offers a valuable opportunity to connect, learn, and meet Brittany Jorgensen, FNP, who will be joining Dr. Coleby as part of the clinic's new care model. If you are unable to attend, don't worry — we will be sending a follow-up letter with additional updates soon.

We hope to see you there!

Warm regards,
Dr. Craig Coleby and the Autonomic Disorders Clinic Team
